S.R.O. 62, dated 22nd Jan. 1958.—The following bye-laws for regulating the construction of pavements and culverts within the limits of Jabalpur Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Jabalpur, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (28) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYELAWS FOR REGULATING THE CONSTRUCTION OF PAVEMENTS AND CULVERTS WITHIN THE LIMITS OF JABALPUR CANTONMENT.

1. Every person intending to construct pavements or culverts in front of his house shall give notice in writing of his intention to the Executive Officer in accordance with the bye-laws made by the Cantonment Board for regulating the erection or re-erection of buildings in the Cantonment of Jabalpur.

2. The pavement or culvert shall be erected by the owner of the house at his own expense after obtaining the sanction of the Cantonment Board.

Provided that where the pavement or culvert is intended to be constructed on land not belonging to the owner of the house, the Cantonment Board shall not give sanction for such construction unless prior permission has been obtained from the owner of the land concerned and produced before the Executive Officer.

3. The pavement or culvert shall be so constructed as to comply strictly with the rules, bye-laws and the directions of the Cantonment Board.

4. The pavement or culvert shall be used for ingress to and egress from the house and shall not be used for any other purpose.

5. The owner of the house shall at all times at his own expense maintain the pavement or culvert in a proper state of repair to the entire satisfaction of the Cantonment Board.

6. The pavement or culvert shall not be added to or altered unless when so directed by, or except with the prior sanction in writing of the Cantonment Board. The expenses of such addition or alteration shall be borne by the owner of the house.

7. If the owner of the house makes any default in carrying out the work in relation to a pavement or culvert as directed by the Cantonment Board or neglects to maintain it in a proper state of repair, the work may be carried out by the Cantonment Board and the expenses shall be recoverable from the owner of the house.

8. The pavement or culvert shall be removed by the owner of the house at his own expense, should the Cantonment Board require him to do so and in such an event the owner of the house shall not be entitled to claim any compensation whatever.

9. Where the land on which the pavement or culvert is to be constructed does not belong to the owner of the house, mere sanction of the Cantonment Board for such construction shall not be deemed to confer on the owner any claim or title whatsoever to such land. The applicant shall furnish a declaration in the form set forth in the Appendix to these bye-laws.

10. A contravention of any of the provisions of these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and, in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
